NEWHAUS (in the Circle of Weſtphalia) May 2.

HIS Serene Highneſs Prince Ferdinand changed his Head-quarters, on the 29th paſt, from Paderborn to this Place, which is about the Diſtance of Half a League from thence. The Hereditary Prince ſtill continues there. The Britiſh Troops are under Orders to be ready to march on the 5th Inſtant: The Reſt of the Army, it is preſumed, will ſoon be put in Motion, and that the whole will be aſſembled about the 19th or 20th. We have received an Account of a Skirmiſh that happened on the 28th paſt at Vacha, a Town upon the Frontiers of Heſſe, which forms the Head of our Chain of Cantonments upon the Werra. A Body of the Enemy, conſiſting of the Regiment of M. D'Apchon, together with ſome Volunteers, made an Attack upon that Place, where Col. Freytag commanded. And tho' our Men were at firſt obliged, on Account of the Superiority of the Enemy, to abandon the Town; yet Col. Freytag took Poſt on a riſing Ground near it where he kept the French in Play, till two Battalions of our Grenadiers, quartered in the Neighbourhood, came to his Aſſiſtance. Upon whoſe Approach, the French retired, but were followed for three Leagues, attacked, and drove from Geiſa, where they intended taking up their Quarters that Night. There were only two Companies of Chaſſeurs on Foot, one on Horſeback, and a Squadron of the Black Huſſars, that had any Share in this Affair. Our Loſs in Killed and Wounded, amounts to about thirty Men; that of the Enemy is four Times as conſiderable. The French had brought a Number of Waggons from Fulda, which they deſigned loading with the Plunder they might get from Vacha and Hirſchfeldt, but were forced to make Uſe of them for the Purpoſe of carrying off their wounded Men.

LONDON, May 3.

We hear that new Treaties have been concluded between his Majeſty, the reigning Prince of Brunſwick, and the preſent Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, for taking an additional Body of Troops from each of thoſe Princes into Britiſh Pay, and that proper Proviſion will ſoon be made for fulfilling the ſaid Treaties.

They write from Paris, that an Opinion prevails, that M. Lally will be expoſed to a ſevere Proſecution upon his Return, as there are many Complaints againſt him by the King's Officers, as well as by the Eaſt-India Company, who make no Scruple of aſſerting, that he has ruined their Affairs.

The Nett Debt of his Majeſty's Navy, as it ſtood the 31ſt of December, 1759, amounts to 4,784,861 l. 17*s.*

May 6. The Garriſon of Gibraltar, which conſiſts of ſix Regiments, is to be reinforced with two more. There were eight Regiments at Gibraltar in Auguſt; but on the ſtrong Report of an Invaſion, two of them were ſent for, and arrived in September, viz. Jeffery's, and the Royal North Britiſh Fuzileers.

May 13. Friday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York took his Seat in the Houſe of Peers on a Chair of State, placed on the Left Hand of the Throne: His Royal Highneſs was preceded by the Heralds, and introduced by four Dukes, viz. the Dukes of Cleveland, Devonſhire, Rutland, and the Earl of Guildford, as Proxy to the Duke of Ancaſter.

Several Expreſſes went from the War-Office on Friday Night laſt, with General Griffin's Orders for the ſpeedy Embarkation of the Troops under his Command.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, May 12.

"The Generoſity of the Duke of York, and Admiral Hawke, to the Widows of the Ramillies, is the great Topic of Converſation among our Sailors here. It has quite whetted their Courage, and (as they expreſs it) now ſince they ſee they won't be forgot when they are dead, the Admiral may lead them into Breſt this Summer, if he pleaſes."

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) July 9.

SAVANNAH, in GEORGIA, July 2.

The Indians here are in exceeding good Temper; they merit Diſtinction, as they remarkably beſtirred themſelves in our Behalf in the Day of Trial. Governor Ellis's Conduct in this Affair is highly commendable; it is ſteady, regular and uniform: His principal Talk is not yet delivered; in it he will urge the Neceſſity of they themſelves taking Vengeance on the Murderers, but does not propoſe to let their Determination therein be final.

July 16. When Col. Montgomery marched from Congarees, the 27th of May, he ſent down Orders to the Captains of the Tranſport Veſſels, which brought the Troops from New-York, to be in Readineſs to take them on board again by the 10th of July. On Friday laſt Joſeph Nutt, Eſq; one of the Contractors Agents, agreeable to Orders from the Colonel of the ſame Date, and now repeated, went up to the Forkes, where the Tranſports are, in order to ſee that the Proviſions, &c. were in Readineſs to be put on board from the Magazines at Monck's Corner, where we hear the Men are to embark.

This Day, about Noon, Mr. Andrew Williamſon came to Town; he left Ninety-Six laſt Sunday, and informs us, that the Troops marched from thence for Congarees at 4 o'Clock on Friday Morning: Capt. Bell, the Commandant of that Fort, has 40 Men in Garriſon. Mr. Williamſon alſo informs us, that the Garriſon at Fort Loudoun had been ſupplied with 300 Buſhels of Indian Corn, and a Quantity of Bacon, about the 20th of laſt Month, which the Little Carpenter had procured by a Negociation with the Great Warrior Occonaſtota.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of his Majeſty's COUNCIL.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, met in General Aſſembly, have fully conſidered the Purport of Lieutenant-Colonel Grant's Letter, communicated to us by your Honour Yeſterday.

The unexpected Return of Colonel Montgomery, from the Cherokee Nation, is Matter of very great Concern to us; and will be more ſo, ſhould the Forces under his Command ſuddenly embark for the Northward; nor is it eaſy to conceive what fatal Conſequences may, by theſe Events, attend this and the neighbouring Provinces.

If we conſider alſo, that the French Governor of New-Orleans (who has the Creeks and Chactaws under his Influence) will embrace the favourable Opportunity of putting in Execution the Plan which has been ſo long concerted for the Deſtruction of the Britiſh Southern Colonies; and if we reflect that many leſſer Tribes of Indians may be compelled, by ſuperior Numbers, to join with them, it is apparent to us that we are in a very critical and dangerous Situation, and ſtand in the greateſt Need of the Aid and Aſſiſtance of his Majeſty's Troops.

Under theſe alarming Circumſtances, which threaten no leſs than the utter Ruin of this Province, we earneſtly intreat your Honour to urge, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, to Colonel Montgomery, the abſolute Neceſſity of his Continuance here, with the Troops under his Command, where his Majeſty's Service, and the Intereſt of this Province, ſo loudly call for his Aſſiſtance.

By Order of the Houſe,

In the Upper-Houſe of Aſſembly, EDWARD FENWICKE.
the 12th Day of July, 1760.

The Lieutenant-Governor's ANSWER.

Honourable Gentlemen;

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for this Addreſs. The fatal Conſequences which you apprehend from the preſent critical Conjuncture, in caſe we ſhould be deprived of the powerful Aſſiſtance of the Detachment of his Majeſty's Troops, under the Command of Colonel Montgomery, diſplays your great Knowledge of the Intereſts, and expreſſes the warmeſt Concern for the Security of this Province; and I do aſſure you that I will, according to your earneſt Requeſt, repreſent to Colonel Montgomery, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, the great Neceſſity of his continuing here, with the Troops under his Command.

WILLIAM BULL.

Part of a Letter from the Camp near Ninety-Six, July 9, 1760.

July 1ſt. We arrived at Keeohwee; halted there that and the next Day, and made Preparations to proceed to Ninety-Six. Here Mr. Atkin, and ſeveral others that had ſtaid at the Fort, joined us.

"July 3d. We ſet out for Ninety-Six, leaving 6 or 8 Months Proviſions, and about 40 Head of Cattle, for the Uſe of the Garriſon at Fort Prince-George; where Colonel Montgomery found it abſolutely neceſſary alſo to leave 2 Serjeants, and 24 Men of the Royals and Highlanders.

"July 8th. Arrived at Ninety-Six, nothing remarkable happening by the Way. To-morrow and next Day we ſhall halt, to recruit our Sick and Wounded a little; and on Friday march for the Congarees.

"Mr. Wilſon is diſpatched on purpoſe to get the Tranſports immediately ready, in order to take the Troops on board when they arrive at Strawberry.

"I had almoſt forgot to tell you the Indians got two Drums from us; and that when we returned from Etchowee over the Field of Battle, I had the Mortification to ſee poor Captain Williams lying above Ground and ſcalped, Captain Morriſon's Head cut off, and ſcalped, and his Body cut in ſeven Pieces; even his Eye-brows were cut off; other Carcaſſes lay ſtripped, with many infamous Marks of Cruelty and Contempt upon them. Since that Affair, we have ſeen the Miſcreants dreſſed in the Regimentals of our Slain. Conſidering the many Difficulties we muſt have encountered, and the great Inconveniencies we laboured under, I think we had not Force enough to attempt the Relief of Fort Loudoun."

Extract of a Letter from Fort Prince-George, dated July 5th.

"An Account of the Operations of the Army under the Hon. Col. Montgomery, I make no Doubt, has been communicated to you long before this, I therefore ſhall not trouble myſelf or you with a Recital of what paſſed, from their leaving Keeohwee to go to the Middle-ſettlements, till their Return to this Fort. I moſt heartily lament the Situation of our poor Friends at Fort Loudoun, but it is abſolutely impracticable to relieve them this Way; the Difficulty of the Paſſes, even to the Middle-ſettlements, can hardly be imagined; before I ſaw them, I had not that Idea of them; but the Traders tell us, that theſe are not to be compared with what we muſt have gone through to the Over-hills Towns. The Return of the Army was certainly a well-judged Thing, altho' I ſee ſome bad Conſequences that muſt follow: Had there been a Fort in the Middle-Settlements, where to have lodged the Sick and Wounded, and to have ſecured a Retreat, in caſe of a Defeat, and that properly ſupplied with Men and Proviſions, then we might have carried our Operations further; but as we were ſituated, it was impoſſible.

"The 3d Inſtant, the Army left us, and are marching downwards, in order to re-imbark for New-York.

"Yeſterday one Jefferſon, a Soldier in the Buffs, ſtrolling about the Hill, where the Army had been encamped, was ſhot and ſcalped by four of the Enemy, whom we ſaw running away juſt after we heard the Report of the Gun. In the Evening the Centinels diſcovered 7 or 8 more ſkulking about the ſame Place; ſo that we begin to undergo a ſecond Confinement, which I wiſh may not be as long, and more diſagreeable than the firſt. Not a Man of the Rangers, or the new raiſed Regiment, could be prevailed on to remain here, alledging that their Time was up, &c. This Morning about 9 o'Clock, arrived here Capt. John Brown from Auguſta, with 13 white Men, dreſſed and painted like Indians, and 43 Chickeſaws, who came with an Intent to join Col. Montgomery, not having heard of his Return. They propoſe to ſtay till the Colonel is informed of their Arrival, which he will be this Evening, by the Bearer. Not a Word from Fort Loudoun ſince the 9th of laſt Month."

In Conſequence of the Addreſſes that were preſented to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor on Saturday laſt, by the Council and Aſſembly, an Expreſs ſet out on Monday Morning, with Diſpatches to the Hon. Col. Montgomery; who, after leaving a good Stock of Proviſions, &c. at Fort Ninety-Six, left that Place on Friday laſt, very early in the Morning.

Extract from the Declarations of ſome of the Creek Traders, who were lately hurried out of the Nation by the Wolf, Gun-merchant, and others.

"That for about 3 Weeks after the late Murders in the Creek Nation, every Thing ſeemed pretty quiet, and the Gun-merchant gave the ſurviving Traders all poſſible Aſſiſtance in collecting the Goods and Horſes together that had been plundered and ſhared: But that about the 12th of June, the Gun-merchant declared he could no longer protect them; adviſed they would depart immediately, and make the beſt of their Way to Auguſta, if they valued their Lives; for that he had no longer a proper Influence over the young Men and Warriors: That he gave for a Reaſon, that ſince the Mortar's Return, there were nothing but bad Talks in the Nation, as, that the Cherokees had overpowered the Engliſh, and killed 1500 of them at one Time, who lay in Heaps for Miles; that their very Boys and old Women knocked them on the Head, and they were no more than Dumphill Fowls; and that even the Looks of Indians were ſufficient to kill them, &c. And, that to the 14th of June, when they ſet out, there was nothing but continual Confuſion and Threatenings in the Nation, which kept the Traders in continual Alarms, ſo that it was neceſſary to follow the Gun-merchant's Advice."

The Declaration of Capt. John Brown, who, with Capt. Adair, heads the Chickeſaws, that are gone to join Col. Montgomery, imports, "that the Day before he left the Breed Camp, the Chickeſaws adviſed him, if he wanted to ſave his Life, to go away immediately, and leave his Effects to their Care, which they would keep for, or ſend after him, if poſſible; for there was no truſting the Creeks any longer, who had agreed to fall on the Engliſh; and nothing had prevented their being all cut off in the Nation, but ſo many of their own People being down about this, and at Savannah: And that the Chickeſaws told him farther, they got this Information from a Creek Fellow, who was related to them, and it was confirmed by ſeveral Chickeſaws, who had gone into the Creek Nation on purpoſe to get Intelligence."

Half Breed Abraham, and the other Creek Indians, who arrived at Mr. M'Queen's Plantation, came to Town laſt Monday, and have had a Conference with his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

Mr. Dempſey, who arrived here laſt Night from the Army under the Hon. Col. Montgomery, informs us, that he left them at Little-Saludee laſt Tueſday, and ſuppoſes they might arrive at Congarees as laſt Night, and not before, being obliged to travel very eaſy, on Account of the Wounded. He met the Negro Abraham at Lyon's Creek, going with Diſpatches to Col. Montgomery.

BOSTON, July 28.

Monday laſt arrived here Colonel Arbuthnot, who has commanded at Fort Frederick, in St. John's River, the Year paſt; alſo ſeveral other Officers, and a Number of Soldiers belonging to this Province, who have garriſoned his Majeſty's Forts up the Bay of Fundy, and now diſcharged, arrived here, being relieved by a Number lately enliſted in this Province for that Service. We hear that the Indians behave well, and ſtill continue to come in to the ſeveral Forts at Nova-Scotia, and carry on Trade very peaceably.

One of the Veſſels mentioned in our laſt to be taken going up to Quebec, was Capt. Cloufton, from this Place, which Veſſel was retaken, after a valuable Cargo was taken out of her: The Veſſel from Halifax belonged to Rundle and Crawley, of that Place.——Three ſmall Veſſels, 'tis ſaid, were armed and fitted out from Quebec, to cruize in the River, and prevent the Enemy from thus ſeizing the Traders.——And that Governor Murray has given Liberty to the French Peaſants to bring into the City freſh Proviſions, for which they were well paid.

Extract of a Letter from St. Euſtatia, dated June 26.

"Commodore Douglas has cut all the Veſſels out of Dominica, and burnt the Village of St. Joſeph.——There are 15 Sail of the Line on this Station, and Men of War daily arriving from England: The Object of their Attention remains as yet a Secret."

We learn from Portſmouth, New-Hampſhire, that an Expreſs arrived there laſt Wedneſday from their Regiment at No. 4. and informed, That an Expreſs came to Col. Goffe the 17*th Inſtant, from Major Rogers, with Advice, that a large Body of French and Indians had landed upon the Eaſt Side of Lake Champlain, and it was feared were deſigned to attack their Re-* giment, who were encamped on Goffe's Road, 18 Miles above No. 4.——That their Men were all well, and in high Spirits, having loſt but one Man out of the Regiment; and that they had finiſhed the Road 23 Miles.

Yeſterday Morning arrived here Capt. Audrewn in 18 Days from Louiſburg, and informs, that the Miners have been ſomewhat retarded in their Work, by the caving in of ſome of the Mines, and that it would be ſome Time before the Works are blown up.——That they had received no late News from Quebec; nor any from our Ships which lately ſailed from thence in Queſt of the French Veſſels ſaid to be in the Bay of Chaleurs.

Friday laſt arrived here from Louiſburg and a Cruize, the Province Ship of War King George, Capt. Hallowell. From Louiſburg we learn, that the armed Veſſels lately fitted out from thence, had been at Pictou, and burnt 5 or 6 of the Veſſels which the Enemy had taken from us laſt Year, and brought off ſome Plunder: That the Indians from St. John's, who brought the Account of the five French Men of War being in the Bay of Chaleurs, alſo informed, that they had landed 400 Men, in order, it was ſaid, to attack our Garriſon at Fort Cumberland.

By Capt. Jacobſon, who arrived here Yeſterday from London, we are informed, That on receiving the melancholy Account of the Deva[illegible]tation in this Town by Fire in March laſt, Subſcriptions were ſet on Foot in the Cities of London, Briſtol, and moſt other Places in England; as alſo in Scotland, Ireland, and Holland, for the Relief of the Sufferers by that Fire.

NEW-LONDON, July 25.

Extract of a Letter from Louiſburg, June 24.

"General Whitmore's and Hopſon's Regiment are embarked, and will ſail the firſt fair Weather for Quebec. Three 70 Gun Ships and 2 Frigates have ſailed from here in Queſt of ſeveral French Men of War, who were in the Gulf, and ſuppoſed intended to land Men and Stores at Chedibucto, or thereabouts. The Miners, &c. are hard at Work to demoliſh this Garriſon, which will be effected in about 3 Weeks."

Laſt Monday arrived here from Cape-François by Way of Monto Chriſti, Captain Houſe, who commanded the rich Philadelphia Snow, taken by Monſieur Chateleau, who, we are very ſorry to ſay, has not anſwered the Character formerly given of him; for, notwithſtanding Captain Houſe proved a moſt valuable Prize, having a Cargo on board, worth at leaſt Sixty Thouſand Pounds Sterling, he was ſtripped of every Thing, even to a ſingle Coat, obliged to pay for his Lodgings while at the Cape, and the Surgeon's Bills for attending him (being ſhot through the Right Hand, ſo as to render it uſeleſs); this he found Means to do by the Friendſhip of one Monſieur M'Carty, a Merchant, who ſupplied him with ſome Money, or he muſt have lain in Goal. From this Treatment of a Gentleman, who unfortunately fell into his Hands with ſo fine a Cargo, we believe Chateleau's Politeneſs, while on our Coaſt, was owing more to ſeveral of the New-York Privateers, into whoſe Hands there was ſome Danger of his falling, than to Principles of Virtue or Humanity in him. There were about 20 Sail of French Ships in that Port, and more daily coming in, our Men of War on that Station, not having Time to look after them, being engaged to ſtop a Branch of Trade the moſt beneficial for Great-Britain and North-America that the Engliſh have ever engaged in.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 4.

Wedneſday Morning died at his Seat, the Honourable JAMES DE LANCEY our Lieutenant-Governor, in the 57th Year of his Age. This unexpected Event, for he was in perfect Health the Evening before, threw the whole City into the deepeſt Sorrow and Amazement. A Pain in the Breaſt awaked him at Three, and continued without Intermiſſion till about Nine in the Morning, when before he apprehended the Neceſſity of a Phyſician, ſeized with a Fit, he ſuddenly expired.

He was deſcended of an honourable Family in this City, and had his Education at Cambridge, under the Tuition of Mr. Herring, afterwards the celebrated Archbiſhop of Canterbury. Here he laid the ſolid Foundation of his future Importance.

His early Accompliſhments, ſoon after his Return, introduced him into his Majeſty's Council, and the ſecond Seat in the Supreme Court of Judicature.

In the Year 1733, he took the firſt Seat on the Bench, and having for 20 Years diſcharged that important Truſt with the greateſt Applauſe, his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer on him the Honours of that dignified Station in which he died.

To do ample Juſtice to this eminent Character in ſo contracted a Compaſs, and on ſo ſudden and alarming an Occaſion, is what the World will hardly expect, or his diſtinguiſhed Accompliſhments, indeed, permit. He enjoyed a quick Conception, a deep Penetration, a clear Judgment, and a retentive Memory. Theſe natural Talents, heightened and improved by his Attainments in Literature, and an intimate Acquaintance with Mankind, made him an agreeable and inſtructive Companion to thoſe who were honoured with his Converſation; and qualified him to fill the moſt important Offices with uncommon Dignity and Luſtre.

His Genius provident, active, fertile in Expedients, and capable of averting or improving the moſt unexpected Occurrences, joined to a perfect Knowledge and Eſteem of our happy Conſtitution, and a zealous Attachment to his Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, rendered him a moſt able and faithful Counſellor to the Crown; and to the Rights and Liberties of the People, a cordial and unſhaken Friend.

In the chief Seat of Juſtice, he was for Capacity and Integrity equalled by few, excelled by none. Patient in hearing, ready in diſtinguiſhing, and in his Deciſions ſound and impartial. He gave ſuch univerſal Satisfaction, that even the Vanquiſhed confeſſed the Juſtice of the Sentence. To form him, in ſhort, a ſhining Ornament of the Law, Nature and his own Induſtry had united their utmoſt Efforts.

His Promotion to the Government at a Seaſon the moſt momentous to the Colonies, was ſignally advancive of his Majeſty's Service, and the public Emolument. And by the Confidence the People repoſed in his ſuperior Abilities, they were induced to exert themſelves in the common Cauſe, with the greateſt Vigour and Alacrity.

Next-Day, at three Quarters after Six, P. M. his Majeſty's Ship the Wincheſter, of 50 Guns, Captain Hale, now in the North River, fired a Gun for the Funeral to move, which was done from his Honour's Seat, in the Bowry. At the ſame Inſtant, Minute Guns began firing from Copſey Battery, and continued to 67, the Number of his Age. The Battery was followed by the Wincheſter, and ſhe by the General Wall Packet, each firing the ſame Number with the Battery. The Order of the Proceſſion, from his Honour's Seat to Trinity Church, was as follows, viz.

1. The Clerks of Trinity-Church, and St. George's Chapel, in an open Chaiſe.
2. The Rector of Trinity Church, in a Chaiſe.
3. The Clergy of the ſeveral Proteſtant Denominations in this City, two by two, in Chaiſes.
4. An open Hearſe bearing the Body in a Coffin, covered with black Velvet, richly adorned with gilt Eſcutcheons and Furniture. The Hearſe was drawn by a beautiful Pair of white Horſes, belonging to his Honour, in Mourning, and were drove by his own Coachman.
5. His Majeſty's Council, in mourning Coaches, being Pall Bearers.
6. Relations, in mourning Coaches.
7. Members of the Aſſembly, in Coaches.
8. The Magiſtrates, two by two, in Coaches and Chaiſes.
9. All the Gentlemen of the Law in this City, two by two, in Coaches and Chaiſes.

The Extent of the Proceſſion was more than Half a Mile: They moved in a very regular Manner, and with a ſlow Pace, until they came oppoſite the Houſe of Mr. Edward Willet, in the Broadway, where the Hearſe ſtopped. The Corpſe was then taken off, and put on Mens Shoulders: The Members of his Majeſty's Council then came out of their Coaches, and ſupported the Pall: The reſt of the Gentlemen alighted from their Carriages likewiſe, and followed two by two, according to their Affinity and Rank. In this Order they proceeded into Trinity Church, which was beautifully illuminated. The Corpſe was then taken from the Mens Shoulders, and placed on a Stand before the Deſk; where the Reverend Mr. Barclay performed the Funeral Service; at the Concluſion of which the Body was removed a few Yards to the middle Iſle, where it was interred. The Whole was conducted with the greateſt Decorum and Solemnity.

Yeſterday Morning the Honourable CADWALLADER COLDEN, Eſq; Preſident of his Majeſty's Council, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-York, came to Town from his Seat at Coldenham, in the Highlands.

The Privateer Harlequin, of this Port, has taken and carried into Antigua, a large Dutch Ship, loaded with French Sugars, which were condemned, but the Ship acquitted.

We hear from Albany, that ſo great a Flood of Rain fell there, that on Saturday laſt, two Canals which run through the Town, overflowed their Banks, and many Cellars were filled with Water. The Damage occaſioned thereby, is computed to be above 5000 l.

Laſt Monday Evening the Crew of a Boat belonging to his Majeſty's Ship Norwich, which was appointed to keep Watch round the ſaid Ship, took an Opportunity to deſert from her, by getting aſhore on the Jerſey Side of this Harbour. Before they got to Land, they were diſcovered by the Man of War, who ſuſpecting their Deſign, fir'd a Shot at them, but without any Regard being paid to it; on which ſhe fir'd another, that hit the Boat and almoſt ſunk her, beſides taking off one of the Men's Legs: However, they made a Shift to reach the Shore with her, and get clear off (notwithſtanding they were purſued by two other Boats from the Norwich and Wincheſſea) leaving the wounded Man behind them, in the Boat. The Crew conſiſted of 15 in Number.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 7.

We are well informed, that his Majeſty was ſo well pleaſed with the gallant Behaviour of the Captains Elliot, Clements and Logie, in fighting and taking M. Thurot's Squadron, that he moſt generouſly preſented the firſt with a Thouſand Pounds Sterling, and the other two with Five Hundred Pounds each.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, July 18, 1760.

"We are in Hopes that, at the Requeſt of the Governor, and the two Houſes of Aſſembly, joined with the general Voice of the People, Colonel Montgomery, with the King's Forces, will be prevailed on to ſtay with us, till Peace is reſtored to the Province. By a Letter from Auguſta received on Wedneſday laſt, there were ſome ſmall Hopes of Matters being made up with the Creeks.—The Sanguine are much elated with this Piece of Intelligence, but perhaps the withdrawing of his Majeſty's Troops may make theſe Indians alter their peaceable Diſpoſition, if they are really ſo inclined."

On Thurſday laſt Captain Porter arrived here from Antigua. By him we have Advice, that the Snow Two Brothers, Captain Barnes, for Antigua, and the Sloop Sally, Captain Dingee, for Montſerrat, both from this Port, are taken, and carried to Martinico; and that the Schooner Jolly Robin, Captain Conyers, likewiſe from this Place, for Antigua, was alſo taken, but retaken, and carried into St. Chriſtophers.

By Captain Porter we are further informed, That there are not leſs than 26 of his Majeſty's Veſſels of War on that Station, 15 of which Ships of the Line, the Remainder Frigates: That the heavy Ships had been cruizing for ſome Time off of Martinico, in Hopes of falling in with M. Bompar, with 12 or 13 Line of Battle Ships, Advice having been received in England, it is ſaid, that he had got out of Breſt with ſuch a Fleet, but his Deſtination not certainly known; that the Frigates were all cruizing on the Trade of the Enemy, and had taken ſeveral Dutchmen; three of which, with one French Veſſel, were lately ſent into St. Chriſtophers by the Griffin Frigate, Captain Taylor: And that the Day he ſailed, 4 French Privateers came into St. John's, taken by the Echo and Levant Frigates; but that notwithſtanding Numbers of our Veſſels were daily picked up by the Enemy.

Extract of a Letter from Pittſburgh, July 25, 1760.

"This Moment the Pack Horſes, that went with the Colonels Bouquet and Mercer to Preſque Iſle, are returned.—The Troops arrived at the Lake the 16th, and on the 17th Major Waters, with 400 of the Royal American Regiment, embarked in Whale Boats, and proceeded to Niagara."

Saturday laſt Captain Brown arrived here from the Weſt-Indies. In Lat. 36, about 18 Fathom Water, he met with a Veſſel overſet. He brought her Boom with him, by which it is thought ſhe is a Brigantine.

We have Advice from Oſwego, that the Army were chiefly collected there the 20th ult. and that it was thought the General would ſet out from thence in about ten Days from that Time.

ANNAPOLIS, Auguſt 14.

From Philadelphia, by a Gentleman who left it laſt Sunday, we have an Account, that a Veſſel is arrived there from Ireland after a pretty good Paſſage, and brought a Dublin Gazette of the 27th of May, wherein is a Paragraph to this Effect, "A Veſſel arrived at Limerick, May 22d, Expreſs "from the Eaſt-Indies, brings an Account of an "Engagement between Admiral Pocock's Squa"dron and the French Fleet, September 10th laſt. "The Engliſh had 9 Ships, and the French 11, at "the Beginning of the Action. It continued very "obſtinate for 2½ Hours, when the French bore "away, and our Ships being ſo diſabled with the "Loſs of Men, &c. upwards of 500 being killed "and wounded, we could not purſue. The Wey"mouth had not a Man killed or wounded, and "the Sutherland only 2 killed."

Saturday Night laſt, Two choice young Negro Men, uſed to the Water, belonging to John Bullen, Eſq; were drowned in our Dock, by the overſetting of a Punt. Their Bodies are ſince taken up.

About Ten Days ago, a valuable Negro Lad, looking for a Horſe on the Weſt Side of Kittockton Mountain, in Frederick County, was bit on the upper Side of his left Foot, near his Great Toe, by a Rattle Snake, which he kill'd, and then taking his Knife out of his Pocket, cut off the Skin and Fleſh of his Foot near an Inch every way round the Bite, and is like to do well. Being ABRAHAM MILTON, Author of the FARMER's COMPANION, informs the Public, That he is determined to have it Printed within two Months, altho' he has not obtained the Number of Subſcribers mentioned in his Propoſals. Such who chuſe to encourage it, are deſired to ſend their Names to the Printing-Office in Annapolis, as ſoon as poſſible.

aſk'd how he could bear to mangle his Fleſh in that Manner, he ſaid, he knew he muſt die if he did not.
